Support local charities. Run or walk the challenging route march as described by Leon Uris in Battle Cry. This event commemorates the US forces based in the Paekakariki area in 1942 and 1943.

The 13.2 km course includes sealed and unsealed roads, bush and clay tracks, and offers spectacular views. The route climbs over 300m, so a good standard of fitness is required. The race is restricted to people 12 years and over.
