Once the application date has closed, our panel of judges will review and collaborate on all entries against the judging criteria and will decide on the three semi-finalists in each category.

We will then contact the semi-finalists to organise a time for their site interviews. This will happen by early-June 2017. We will also start to organise accommodation and travel arrangements for finalists to attend the Z Awards final at the CCNZ Conference on Friday 4 August 2017.

The site visits will happen around late-May 2017 and we will aim to have these completed by mid-July.

If you have been unsuccessful in becoming a finalist, you will receive a letter to let you know as soon as the semi-finalists have been confirmed.

Best of luck!

The closing date for applications is 5pm Friday 19 May 2017.
