There are a number of assessment questions and/or observations in this assessment. Ensure that you carefully read each question and set of instructions before you answer and/or perform tasks.

1. All assessment questions/observations must be complete.
2. All tasks in this assessment are open book.
3. You will need a pen and/or access to a computer to complete this assessment dependant on whether you are completing in hard or soft copy.
4. If you are completing this assessment digitally, ensure that it has been downloaded and saved in to your local documents folder before attempting the assessment.
5. Discuss with your tutor the time limit for this assessment.
6. An attestation form found on the assessment must be signed by you before submission.
7. All answers must be in your own words.

You may choose to complete this assessment verbally using a speech to text digital tool. Discuss this option with your tutor.

Brief

Your Adventurous Journey is going to be awesome. You are going to have a lot of fun and are going to learn a lot about yourself and about life. Upon completing the Adventurous Journey, you must create and deliver a PowerPoint presentation about the Journey and what you learnt. You must present this to your peers and an observer.

Read and follow the brief carefully and ensure that you read the entire assessment before you begin.

You must plan, create and present a presentation that consists of eight slides and is at least five minutes long.

The colour and layout of the slides is up to you; however, all slides must have a consistent design.

You will need to come up with the content for the slides. You need to make sure that your content is varied, which may include text, images, videos, and audio. You may use your own images, or you can source these from the internet. How you utilise content is up to you. You must reference any material used that is not yours.

Outcome 1: Plan the presentation using computer technology, working from given specifications and content.

Presentation Plan

It is important to be able to plan a presentation before creating it. Using the instructions given and content provided to you by your observer, create a plan for your presentation.

You can use the template over the next few pages to plan your presentation, create the plan digitally on a separate document or discuss your plan verbally as it is recorded for marking.

Your plan must identify the presentation's:

1. Topic
2. Purpose
3. Method of delivery
4. Specifications
5. Target audience
6. Content
7. Computer applications that will be used
8. Order of content and format of the presentation

Identify the topic of your presentation.

Identify the purpose of your presentation.

Identify the method of delivery for your presentation.

Identify the specifications of the presentation, given in the instructions.

Identify the target audience of the presentation.

Identify the content that will be included in the presentation.

Identify the computer application that will be used to create and deliver the presentation.

Outline the order of content in your presentation.

Outline the format of your presentation

Outcome 2: Create a presentation using computer technology.

Create the Presentation

You must create the presentation using the identified software application.

Ensure that your content is prepared and assembled according to the plan. Your presentation must be in line with the specifications given in the brief.

You must check your presentation to ensure that it is consistent with the requirements of the plan.

I have checked the contents of my presentation and am confident that it is consistent with the requirements of the brief.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

You must submit your presentation digitally for marking along with the rest of the assessment.

Outcome 3: Deliver the presentation to the specified audience using computer technology.

Deliver the Presentation

Delivering a presentation is the culmination of the planning and preparation that goes in to creating a presentation.

You must deliver your presentation to the audience specified in your presentation.

Your digital slides must be visible to the audience and your presentation must be able to be clearly heard by all members of the audience.
