

Getting started

Step 1 Decide which level of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award programme you would like to do – this will depend on your age, time commitments etc

Step 2 Talk to your Award Leader and arrange to register to do your Award programme

Step 3 Decide with your Award Leader what you are going to do for each section of your Award programme

Step 4 Get started! Don't forget to log your progress on ORB, our online record book, and ask your Assessors to sign off each section as you complete them

Step 5 Once your Award programme is complete, speak to your Leader who will arrange for you to receive your certificate or badge. They can also advise you about starting the next level of the Award if appropriate.

How long will it take?

The time it will take to complete your programme and achieve an Award is in many ways down to you. The shortest time in which you can complete your Bronze programme is 6 months; your Silver programme is also 6 months; and your Gold programme, 12 months. During your programme you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week over this time. Don't forget – you have until your 25th birthday to complete any programme and achieve an Award!

Find out more...

Talk to your Award Leader at Crimson Education to get more information and take a look at <https://dofehillary.org.nz/> and <https://www.crimsoneducation.org/nz>

Working together

A guide to completing your Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award with Crimson Education

What is the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award and why should I get involved?

The concept of the Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award (the Award) is simple – anyone aged 14 to 24 can do a programme at one of three progressive levels which, when successfully completed, lead to a Bronze, Silver or Gold Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award.

The Award is internationally recognised. Operating in over 130 countries, today more than 1.3 million young people are taking part. Since its launch over 60 years ago, the Award has inspired millions of young people to transform their lives.

Because Award programmes are all about getting out there, having fun and self-development, everyone can achieve something. You'll find yourself helping people or the community, getting fitter, developing skills, going on an adventurous journey and at Gold level only, taking part in a residential activity.

What do I need to do to achieve my Duke of Edinburgh's Hillary Award?

The programme is made up of four sections (five at Gold). Over the required time you'll need to do each activity for an average of an hour a week. You'll need to show persistence, commitment and personal development.

Bronze (14+ years old)

To achieve your Bronze Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
3 months	3 months	3 months	Plan, train for and complete a 2 day, 1 night adventurous journey
You must also undertake a further three months of appropriate activity in either the Service, Physical or Skills section

Silver (15+ years old)

To achieve your Silver Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey
6 months	6 months	6 months	Plan, train for and complete a 3 day, 2 night adventurous journey
If you have not completed your Bronze Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Service, Physical or Skills section

Gold (16+ years old)

To achieve your Gold Award, you need to complete the following sections:

Service	Physical	Skills	Adventurous Journey	Residential
12 months	12 months	12 months	Plan, train for and complete a 4 day, 3 night adventurous journey	Undertake a shared activity in a residential setting away from home for 5 days and 4 nights
If you have not completed your Silver Award, you must undertake a further six months of appropriate activity in either the Service, Physical or Skills section

Choosing activities

There are a lot of activities you may already be doing that can count towards your Award. Here are a few examples to help get you started:

Service: coach or manage a sports team, fundraise for a charity, volunteer at the SPCA, become a leader at a youth club, help with an emergency services team such as surf life-saving

Physical: do a team sport such as soccer or netball, athletics, skiing, kayaking, kickboxing, horse riding, running, dancing

Skills: play a musical instrument, learn a craft such as jewellery making, referee or umpire for a sport, learn sign language, drama and theatre skills

Adventurous Journey: this is something you will plan for, it involves being part of a team and completing an adventurous journey for a set number of days

Residential (Gold Award only): attend a residential programme for five days and four nights with people you don't know and undertake purposeful activity – eg: helping at a youth camp, conservation work, attend a youth event overseas

How Crimson Education can help you gain your Award

Crimson Education operates as an independent Award Unit. You can register under their umbrella to do the Award from almost anywhere in the world! Once you've committed to doing the Award, you log all your progress online on our Online Record Book.

Participating in the Award is a great asset to have on your CV – it can support your applications for both further study and employment.

To find out more, talk to the team at Crimson Education.