

Share your Award story!

We are always on the lookout for great stories from those involved in the Award. Whether you are a participant, volunteer, or award leader, we'd love to hear how the Award has made an impact on your life. We are particularly interested to hear from you if you believe the Award helped you to get a job.

When writing your story, please tell us:

- Your full name and country of residence
- How you found out about the Award and why you chose to get involved
- What did your Award involve? What did you do for each section?
- How you think your involvement in the Award has made a positive impact on your life and on the lives of others
- Were there any challenges you encountered along the way and how you overcome them?
- Whether you think the Award helped you with your further education or in securing employment
- How did you feel at the end of your Award? Would you recommend it to others?
- PLEASE SEND PHOTOS TOO!

How we will use your story

The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award New Zealand is grateful for all the stories it receives and aims to publish as many as possible. The stories we use will be published on our website and promoted across our social media networks. We may also use stories in publications and promotional materials. By sharing your story and any photos with us here, you are giving us permission to do this.
