DIVERSITY DANCE PROJECT

Jolt is excited to offer inclusive dance workshops for primary school students.

These workshops will be run by Jolt dancers and will use dance as a way of encouraging positive interactions and changing attitudes about disability. Each workshop will run for one hour and include a 45-min dance session and 15-minute question and answer time.

An introductory pamphlet will be sent to the school prior to the session which will include photos of the dancers and information about the session.

INCLUSIVE DANCE TRAINING

Jolt is also offering training workshops in inclusive dance. The workshops will run over two weekends and will cover basics for establishing dance classes as well as intensive engagement and improvisation techniques.

No dance or teaching background is necessary.

All of the sessions will include practical exploration of techniques in an inclusive environment.

For more information about the above project/workshops please contact Lyn Cotton (lyncotton@hotmail.com)
