DIVERSITY DANCE PROJECT

Move tutor trainees have been doing an amazing job teaching mainstream primary school students in our Diversity Dance Projects. So far we have been to Sommerfield School, Opawa School, Shirley Primary and West Spreydon.

All of the feedback has been amazing! This is from Mandy at Sommerfield School.

"In my 12 years of teaching I have never witnessed such an empowering and lasting experience for children and neither had my colleagues. The children are still talking about it and when they do, their eyes light up, their conversations are electric and they always ask "When are they coming back?"

The gift that the MOVE team gave to our children was the pure understanding that everybody is valuable and deserves to feel like they belong.

It won't be the math strategies or how to paragraph that stand out for the children this year. It will be most definitely, this experience.

MOVE is about movement but I also believe that MOVE is a movement. It is a mindset shift that all of society should be exposed to. It starts with the children".

TEACHER TRAINING

Lyn and Renee Ryan travelled to New Plymouth to run an integrated dance workshop for teachers at New Plymouth Girls High. It was a fantastic day and really exciting to see schools looking to introduce dance programmes that celebrate difference and integration.

WORKSHOPS

Term Two has been a busy one for workshops. We welcomed dance students from Waimea College who joined the teenagers class for a wonderful dance session – as you can tell from the picture of Connor and Sophie!

Michael Krammer, Sam Stevens and Cameron Boot also worked alongside Lyn, Renee Ryan and Aleasha to present a workshop with dance students at Avonside Girls High School.

FUNDRAISING DINNER

The Jolt Annual Fundraising Dinner was another wonderful success. We had a record turnout and impressive costumes.

Jolt Youth performed a James Bond classic and the Adults Two class gave a spirited performance of Time warp. There was also a special duet to Moon River by Stephen Ecker and Aleasha. Parisa won best dressed woman!

Huge thanks to everyone who came and supported us and to all our wonderful sponsors who donated prizes!

CONGRATULATIONS TO
