Helping Families

Providing an easy platform to help connect those with unwanted uniform to others in our community because sometimes its just hard to find connect with other interested parties over the holiday period.

Creating an outlet for those who find the cost of uniform just a little too much at the start of the new year.

Helping our community

Creating opportunity for to connect with others in our community for a good cause.

Raising awareness and funds for the local foodbank.

Helping out those around us who find this time of year financially stressful.

Reducing the amount of clothing waste that might end up in landfill.

Free routine dental care is provided from the first year of college (Year 9) and ends on their 18th birthday (some exclusions apply which include hygienist and orthodontic treatment).
