

Community Notices

Im reaching out from the Greater Wellington Regional Council to invite you to Whitireia Park for a Community Snorkel Day with Greater Wellington Regional Council and Mountains to Sea on Saturday 29 February, starting at 9:30 am.

This year it's all about seaweed! Find out about the numerous benefits and uses of seaweed and how healthy carbon-sequestering marine flora could potentially save the world. Our incredible snorkel guides and marine experts will be on hand to help you every step of the way and make this a day to remember.

New snorkelers are encouraged, but you must be able to swim. Wetsuits, snorkels, flippers, guides and safety gear are provided - just bring your togs, a towel, and sun protection. Please note the minimum age is 8 years, and children below 16 must be accompanied by a snorkelling adult.

This event is free and you don't need to book, but it's important to register to attend on the Facebook page to receive important information and updates. You'll find details about the free transport options we are offering on there as well.

If you're not on Facebook, you can find the same info on our website.

We look forward to seeing you there!

An evening with Barbara Arrowsmith-Young at Marsden - Arrowsmith Program

Samuel Marsden Collegiate School is hosting Barbara Arrowsmith-Young, the founder of the Arrowsmith Program, on Tuesday 25 February at 7pm, Marsden School Auditorium, Marsden Ave, Karori. The invitation is open to anyone interested in the links between education and neuroplasticity or has a child who would benefit from enhancing their learning and general wellbeing by improving their cognitive functions. Barbara will be presenting her fascinating talk about her cognitive training programme and personal journey. If you have a child who has a learning difference such as dyslexia, processing difficulties, dyscalculia or auditory processing difficulties, we recommend you attend. Entry is free. Please register here: <https://www.marsden.school.nz/about/whats-on-now/event-registration/>
